

„Art sharpens the sensens, constraining our contentions into a confrontation with our consciousness.“

„Images, raising; released from the thralldom of meaning. They are what they are. Like the stones of a wall or a riverbed.“

(Mary Green)